

LOCAL HISTORY OPEN DAY

Home Farm and current Station Road about 1890

SAT 20 APR 11AM - 3PM

FREE ENTRY - NO BOOKING

The Eric Morecambe Centre is hosting Harpenden's Local History Open Day. The day includes the marking of Harpenden & District Local History Society's 50th anniversary, as well as the official opening of the new museum. The event will be presided by Annie Brewster, High Sheriff of Hertfordshire in Nomination.

Highlights to include exhibitions on the history of Harpenden and district, local society stands, a special children's competition, and history talks throughout the day for sixth formers and adults.

For more information, visit: www.harpenden-history.org.uk

All arrangements subject to confirmation. For queries or to volunteer to help, email: April20@harpenden-history.co.uk