

Barrett George, farmer
Betts Thomas, farmer
Chapman John, farmer
Chapman William, farmer

Post Office.—Henry Cundall, receiver, Angel inn.
Letters from London, via Ware, arrive  $\frac{1}{2}$  past 8 a.m.; dis-

HARPENDEN is a large village in Dacorum Hundred and St. Alban's Union, on the Bedford road, 5 miles south of Luton,  $\frac{1}{2}$  north of St. Alban's, and 25 $\frac{1}{2}$  from London. The area is 4,920 acres, and the population, in 1841, was 1,892. The assessment to the Property Tax was £10,621, in 1842. Some brewing is carried on. Here is a large ancient parish church, the eastern end has been new roofed, has a square tower; the living is a perpetual

Bailey George, esq
Ells Mrs. E
Field Mr. William
Johnson Rev. Geo. T. [Indepndt. minister]
Kingston Francis, esq
Lawes John B. esq. Rothampstead house
Lawes Mrs
Lewin William, esq
Maitland Mrs
Manon William, esq
Marston Major
Rumball J. Q. esq. the Hall
Rutherford Peter, esq. Common
Ward Mrs
Wyatt John, esq

TRADERS.

Archer John, boot & shoe maker
Archer Richard, 'Cross Keys'
Ashby Mrs. Harriet, grocer
Attwood Wm. beer retailer, Cold harbour
Batchelor Richard, baker
Bates John, farmer
Bennett William, brickmaker
Boulton George, tinman & brazier
Chase Frederick, saddler
Child William, tailor
Curtis James, brewer & maltster
Davis Thomas & James, farmers

Post Office.—Mr. John Eyles, receiver. Letters from all parts arrive by foot post from St. Alban's, 9 a.m.; dispatched at  $\frac{1}{2}$  past 5 p.m.

INSURANCE AGENT.—Farmers' Fire & Life, Wm. Vallance
Registrar of Births & Deaths, G. Giffkins

HATFIELD and NORTH MIMMS.

HATFIELD, or Bishop's Hatfield, is a small but ancient

Stortford
Harvey George, harness maker

patched 6 p.m. Letters from Bishop's Stortford arrive at 6 p.m.; are dispatched at  $\frac{1}{2}$  past 8 p.m. curacy, annexed to the rectory of Wheathampstead. There is a commodious chapel for Independents; also a Wesleyan chapel, and a new Free school erected by subscription.

TOP STREET, ROUGH HYDE, BOWLING ALLEY, and HATCHING GREEN, are places in the neighbourhood. ROTHAMPSTEAD is 1 mile south-west; HARPENDEN BURY is 1 mile west; ANOBLES, 2 $\frac{1}{2}$  miles north-west.

Davis George, farmer
Davis William, farmer
Elmer James, 'George'
Eyles John, tailor & draper, & post office
Farnell John, butcher
Ferne Thomas, farmer, Moreton end
Freeman Richard, 'Marquis of Granby'
Gardner George, plumber & glazier
Giffkins George, academy, & registrar of births & deaths
Gilbert Joseph W. professor of chemistry
Gilbert Thomas, tailor
Gower Thomas, baker
Hastings Richard, M.D. surgeon
Heath George, butcher
Henson William, boot & shoe maker
House John Thomas & James, brewers, maltsters & farmers
How John, farmer
How William, farmer
Hunt William, surveyor
Huson Thomas, boot & shoe maker
Irons William, carpenter
James George, farmer
Jeeves William, wheelwright
Leedham Henry Joseph, rope maker
Lewin Joseph, grocer, teadealer, chemist & druggist

Lines Henry, blacksmith
Martin Joseph, bricklayer
Matthews Joseph, beer retailer
Missenden John, baker
Nott William, farmer & grocer
Oldaker Henry, Bull inn
Oliver Samuel, linendraper
Osborn William, beer retailer
Patmore John, 'Red Lion'
Poulton William, beer retailer
Redhead Matthew, farmer
Robinson John, carpenter
Robinson William, beer retailer
Row James, blacksmith, Common
Sibley Robert, farmer, Anobles
Simons Mrs. Mary, baker
Simons William, surgeon
Spackman Frederick Robert, surgeon
Swain John, blacksmith
Tomalin Matthew, beer retailer
Trustring Joseph, Cock inn, & builder
Vallance William, stationer & ironmonger, & agent to Farmers' fire & life office
Wade Jesse, beer retailer
Walker William, straw plait dealer
Wells William, bricklayer
Wilmott Henry, farmer
Wilmott Joseph, farmer

COACHES TO LONDON.—Victoria, from Luton at  $\frac{1}{2}$  past 4 aft. calls at the Bull inn; Favorite, from Luton at 7 morn. calls at the 'Cross Keys.' A coach from Amptill, morn. wed. & fri. at 10 morn. calls at the Bull inn

CARRIER TO LONDON, from Luton, daily, morn. House, the seat of the Marquis of Salisbury, is a large Elizabethan brick edifice, with enrichments of English archi-